

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
WESTERN DIVISION

PADILLA CONSTRUCTION COMPANY,
et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

MARTIN J. WALSH, et al.,

Defendants.

CASE NO. 2:18-cv-1214

JOINT JUDGMENT

Hon. George H. Wu

In resolution of the Court’s March 28, 2022 Order adopting its March 25, 2022 tentative ruling, the parties have agreed on a joint proposed judgment as follows:

- 1) The United States Department of Labor (“DOL”) shall propose to rescind the registration requirements of 20 C.F.R. § 655.11 and 20 C.F.R. § 655.12 and propose conforming edits throughout 20 C.F.R. § 655, subpart A, to remove references to the H-2B registration process through proper notice and comment procedures; and
- 2) Provided the H-2B Application submitted by the employer, or its authorized attorney or agent, meets all regulatory requirements, DOL shall use the Notice of Acceptance (“NOA”) issued under 20 C.F.R. § 655.33 to inform the qualifying H-2B employer of the following related to its temporary need:
  - a) State that DOL has determined that the nature of the employer’s need for the services or labor to be performed is temporary as defined in 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(h)(6)(ii), but that the Department of Homeland Security is the final arbiter of temporary need and may overturn the determination made by

1 DOL. See 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(h)(5)(iv)(B);

- 2 b) Provide a unique temporary need registration number associated with both
3 the services or labor to be performed and also with the dates of need; state
4 the period of time for which the number will remain active, which shall be
5 for up to three years; and direct the employer to disclose the unique
6 registration number on Field B.8 of the Form ETA-9142B, H-2B
7 Application for Temporary Employment Certification, in future H-2B
8 Applications filed while the unique registration number remains active;
- 9 c) Advise the employer that DOL, when adjudicating the employer's 10 temporary need, will consider an active unique registration number as one
11 piece of evidence that the employer has satisfied the temporary need
12 requirement and will also consider (i) if the temporary need registration
13 number entered on a future application is obviously inaccurate, inactive, or 14 associated with a different employer or job opportunity; (ii) if the nature of 15 the job classification, duties, number of workers needed, and/or period of 16 need has materially changed; (iii) if the nature of the employer's need for 17 services or labor to be performed has materially changed; and (iv) any
18 other information or documentation before the Certifying Officer ("CO")
19 that suggests the nature of the employer's need may not be temporary; and
- 20 d) Notify the employer that the unique registration number and temporary 21 need determination may not be transferred from one employer to another 22 unless the employer to which it is transferred is a successor in interest to 23 the employer to which it was issued.
- 24 3) If in any future H-2B Application submitted by the employer, or its authorized 25 attorney or agent, DOL has reason to believe an employer's need may not be 26 temporary as a result of a review of the information described in paragraph
27 2(c) above, DOL may issue a Notice of Deficiency pursuant to 20 C.F.R.
28 § 655.31 informing the employer that the temporary need determination

1 associated with the unique registration number has been called into question,
2 and that the unique registration number has been deactivated. The deactivation
3 of the unique registration number is not appealable. The Notice of Deficiency
4 will state the reason(s) why the application fails to demonstrate a temporary
5 need and state the documentation or information needed to make a new
6 determination of the employer's temporary need. Should the CO ultimately
7 determine that the employer's need is temporary, the unique registration
8 number will be reactivated for another period of time, which shall be for up to 9 three years.

- 10 4) DOL shall announce the procedure set forth in Paragraphs 2 and 3 on both its 11 website at www.dol.gov/agencies/eta/foreign-labor, and by electronic mail to 12 all employers and their authorized attorneys or agents, as applicable, who 13 submitted H-2B applications during calendar years 2021 and 2022.
- 14 5) The Court shall have continued jurisdiction to enforce Paragraphs 1 through 4 15 of this judgment.
- 16 6) This judgment shall not restrict DOL's ability to issue future rules pertaining 17 to temporary need through the proper rulemaking process.
- 18 7) The parties intend to resolve the issue of fees and costs through a separate 19 agreement. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over the issue of fees in this 20 matter pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54 in the event the parties
21 do not reach agreement, or if the parties do reach agreement, only to the 22 extent of ensuring the parties' agreement is enforced.

23
24 //

25 //

26

27

28

1 8) The Court grants partial summary judgment in Defendants' favor with respect
2 to Plaintiffs' first cause of action and grants partial summary judgment in 3 Plaintiffs' favor with respect to Plaintiffs' second cause of action. With the 4 parties having agreed on the terms noted above, this judgment resolves the 5 instant matter, and this case is now closed.

6
7 IT IS SO ORDERED.

8
9 DATED: November 2, 2022.

---

HON. GEORGE H. WU
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE